if you ask lorelle perrin, there is no part of education that isn't valuable. this animal-loving canadian believes that there's always more to learn in this ever-evolving, always changing industry. inspired by frida kahlo, she's the ultra-efficient, forward-thinking educator with an unwavering passion for colouring and finishing. walking away from lorelle's classes, you'll have the confidence to provide salon services in better, more efficient ways. and let us assure you, her knack for simplifying hairdressing fundamentals is far more straightforward than her coffee order – an oat milk cinnamon dolce latte sans whip, for those wondering.
